

Announcement of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok on the Policy of Non-acceptance of All Types of Gift from Performing Duties for the Fiscal Year 2024

King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok has issued a prior announcement on the policy of non-acceptance of gift from performing duties for the executives, personnel and stakeholders from outside the organization to be acknowledged, and particularly for the university's executives and personnel to strictly observe.

In order to emphasize the university's unwavering intention to implement the policy of non-acceptance of gift from performing duties (No Gift Policy) and to strengthen the organization's culture by issuing guidelines for the university's executives and personnel to follow, the meeting No. 40/2566 of the planning and policy committee organized through an online platform on 12 December 2023 agreed to specify the policy on non-acceptance of all types of gift (No Gift Policy) for the fiscal year 2024 as follows.

1. The KMUTNB's executives and personnel refrain from receiving all types of gift in connection with duties; for instance, before performing duties, while performing duties and after performing duties, which may cause conflicts of interest or undermine the transparency of the university's operations both in the present and the future. The university's executives and personnel at all levels are required to study and strictly follow this rule and regulation.

2. The executives and supervisors at all levels within the university are tasked to monitored and ensure that the personnel under their supervision comply to the university's policy and intention in not accepting gifts in connection with duties. Also, they may implement further measures, guidelines and supporting mechanism to promote the no gift policy culture within the university and offices.

This announcement takes effect from now on.
